

THE DAILY APPEAL.

SATURDAY—OCTOBER 9, 1858.

HARRISBURG—Harper's Weekly for October 8, has been received and may be had at Gray & Co.

FIRE.—Early risers found the houses were yesterday morning with the first frost of the season.

MILITARY.—Have we any military spirit among us? The Governor of the State offers to supply any artillery company that will organize among us with side arms and field pieces. Now, boys, who takes the chance?

CONFIDENTIAL.—Geo. Mitchell, the paper of the South, has been condemned to serve six months in the state prison. We were at his post office yesterday. Long may he wave.

FEAR.—A fire broke out yesterday in a residence at the corner of Caney street and Brown's avenue. The No. 7 company was rapidly on the ground, but the fire was extinguished with little damage without their assistance.

THIEVES.—For these papers we thank kind friend H. Boggs, Esq., of the Evening Express in Macomb, Illinois, the newspaper of Peoria, Ill., and W. M. WHEELER, of the Louisville Journal.

LOSES.—Also to CHARLES SCHULZ of the Nebraska Journal, and W. H. BLOCK, of the Bidney.

WE REQUEST.—We are requested to state that a meeting of the Hospital Trustees will be held at the office of Dr. MARTIN this morning at 11 o'clock. Business of importance will be brought before the Board, and hence a full attendance is desired.

WILL.—We would direct attention to the card of Mr. S. M. MCNEELEY, who, at great expense, has given up his time and money for his classes. Mr. MCNEELEY occupies the highest position as a professor of his art, and we can only trust that he will fully succeed in teaching his beautiful art.

COURT.—This court opens on Monday next; a long session is expected. The court will be held in the court room which was occupied on the occasion of the last court by the Pensacola newspaper. The number of cases on the docket is 950, there were 135 cases at the commencement of the last session.

DEATH.—The body of a man, lying on the body of a horse, in the property of Col. STEVENSON, who was drowned in consequence of falling from the neck of the Kelby Frieser, some days ago. The owner had an insurance on the negro for eight hundred dollars.

DESTITUTION.—The saving at the corner of Madison and Main streets was demolished yesterday, so that if told it had a longer where-with to repeat the chattering of male scoundrels which has been scattered heads and beneath them!

DIFFICULTY.—A difficulty occurred at the "Senate" on Jefferson street on Thursday night, in which weapons were drawn, but no blood spilt. The case was under examination, and the difficulty was removed by a parson until to-day, in account of the absence of some of the witnesses.

LIBERTY.—H. E. of the Commercial Hotel and Wrenham have an excellent selection of periodicals for sale. Among them this morning may be found: The New York Herald, October 8; the New York Ledger, New York, Weekly, and New York Mercury of October 10, and Leicester's Chronicle of October 8.

MEMPHIS.—In the Fair Grounds, like all other cities, is a deep depression, and high it rises, encompassing vehicles in an impenetrable fog when they pass along it. With what combats can carriages, omnibuses and equestrians proceed from the city to the fair next week, if this due plague remains? It is plain the road must be sprinkled, or the attendees will be seriously disengaged.

LAURENCE.—Mr. K. W. Wray, whose professor known in Pandemic some three or four years ago, is now on trial for murder in Marshall, the scene having been changed to that county. Moses JAMES PEELE, W. S. FEATHERSTON, and N. W. WILLIAMS, are the prosecuting counsel. Gen. REUBEN DAVIS, Col. C. D. FOSTER, T. W. HARRIS, and W. G. GOODMAN are the defense.

EDITOR LECTURES.—Tron. GILES Foster, Esq., formerly connected with the St. Louis and Cincinnati press, and now editor of the Banner of Light at Boston, has become a zealous and able advocate of the spiritualist doctrine, and will lecture on the subject this evening. There will doubtless be considerable curiosity to hear how a gentleman of Foster's intelligence and ability will handle a subject we generally consider as absurd.

LARGE CROWD.—Mr. LEAVITT, of Philadelphia, left with us yesterday, three cars of corn, which he procured from the farm of Mr. A. F. BRECKINRIDGE, of Liver, Texas, opposite New Madrid. Mr. LEAVITT measured 12 to 14 feet in length, and each of his cars was to hold a half score each. It is called the "Yellow Flint." Corn is very sweet, and is most excellent either for bread or powdered for stock. The specimens can be seen in our office.

ACCIDENT.—MICHAEL CONNELLY, a laborer, was yesterday employed wheeling brick on the third story of CANANAH and HANNA's new building, on the west side of Main street, between 12th and 13th. In the upper, the hand which he was walking upon. He fell off at the hatchway and passed successively through the three stories. His head was much injured and his body severely cut and bruised. He was taken up unscathed. Dr. GATES dressed his wounds, after which he was sent to the City Hospital.

SWAN FOR IT.—One of those ordinary events, a fight, took place in the printing office, when one Lovell and Davis proceeded to arrest the culprits. So alarmed was one of the men at the prospect of Calaboes and the chain gang, that, like a dock of a fellow, he sprang into the water and swam off. He soon showed signs of exhaustion from the exertion of swimming. The two others followed him, and the party, who were never seen again, gave up the chase.

HIDES WANTED.—Mr. LEAVITT, of Philadelphia, left with us yesterday, three cars of corn, which he procured from the farm of Mr. A. F. BRECKINRIDGE, of Liver, Texas, opposite New Madrid. Mr. LEAVITT measured 12 to 14 feet in length, and each of his cars was to hold a half score each. It is called the "Yellow Flint." Corn is very sweet, and is most excellent either for bread or powdered for stock. The specimens can be seen in our office.
